The Honorable Brockway McMillan
Under Secretary of the Air Force
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Dr. McMillan:

Upon the reassignment and departure of [redacted] [redacted] I would like to highly commend [redacted] for his consistent outstanding performance of duty in a most critical and important area of activity of joint interest to the United States Air Force and the Central Intelligence Agency.

[redacted] has been most valuable in his area of endeavor. As you know, we are highly dependent upon the support of the United States Air Force and are most appreciative of this support and the manner in which it has been executed by [redacted]

During the past two years, Colonel Jack Ledford has been consistent and unqualified in his praise of [redacted] and the manner in which they have been able to work together.
Colonel Ledford has mentioned [redacted] many times to me in recognition of his efforts. We consider [redacted] to be a highly qualified and competent professional Air Force officer who gets things done quietly and quickly regardless of the difficulty of the situation. He is extremely well liked and respected by all of his associates, both Air Force and Agency.

We are going to miss [redacted] in our program and wish him the best in his new assignment.

I would be delighted to support a formal type of recognition, such as the Legion of Merit, for if you think it appropriate.
